MASTERS OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

M.S. in Criminal Justice Law Enforcement

Apply now for January 2027 start

Build on your service and advance your leadership

Transform your professional experience into advanced expertise in justice, public safety, and security with Endicott's M.S. in Criminal Justice, and take the next step in your professional career. You will be prepared to lead in a rapidly evolving field through an interdisciplinary, career-focused curriculum grounded in real-world application. Expand your professional opportunities and develop specialized expertise that will allow you to move into new areas of the fast-paced criminal justice field.

With three distinct concentrations—Criminological Psychology, Emergency Management, and Cybersecurity—this program offers multiple pathways to gain a specialized understanding of today's complex criminal justice landscape.

- Position yourself for leadership opportunities by building advanced skills in leadership, law and policy, ethics, research, and applied practice.
- Develop specialized skills in analyzing complex systems, interpreting data, applying ethical frameworks, and implementing reforms that create meaningful impact in communities and organizations.
- Dedicated Military & Veteran Support: Comprehensive institutional resources, flexible scheduling, and specialized assistance tailored to National Guard members, veterans, and working professionals.
- Military-Friendly Benefits:
  - GI Bill Benefits
  - Tuition Assistance
  - Yellow Ribbon
  - $750 military rate per course ($250 per credit)
  - Credit for prior learning; up to six credits to honor your professional experience; and more

- Complete your degree in 12–18 months with start times in Fall, Spring, and Summer
- Flexible on-campus and hybrid formats or 100% online
- 33 credits, five core courses, four concentration courses, one elective, and a culminating capstone
- Apply now for program start in January 2027
- Small class size offers personalized attention

Learn more

Choose one of three concentrations for your Master of Science in Criminal Justice:

Criminological Psychology

Understand Behavior. Strengthen Justice.
Explore the intersection of psychology, mental health, and the criminal justice system.

Develop expertise in:

- Forensic psychopathology
- Mental health and the justice system
- Crisis management and decision-making
- Reentry, supervision, and support
- Leadership, law, ethics, policy, and research

Cybersecurity

Crime Has Gone Digital. Be Ready to Lead.
Build advanced expertise at the intersection of criminal justice, cybersecurity, and public safety.

Develop expertise in:

- Cybercrime and digital threats
- Cyber incident response and recovery
- Information systems and network security
- Leadership, law, and policy

Emergency Management

Prepare for Crisis. Lead the Response.
Build advanced expertise to lead, manage, and respond to complex emergencies and public safety challenges.

Develop expertise in:

- Emergency management
- Leadership and ethics
- Emergency response and recovery
- Psychology of terrorism
- Criminal justice, policy, and research

Scan here for more information

GET CONNECTED

endicott.edu
@endicottcollege

QUESTIONS?

Contact Us:
Office of Graduate Admission
978-232-2199 | gradadmissions@endicott.edu

ENDICOTT COLLEGE
endicott.edu